

Supervision Seminars

Stephen Lankton, MSW, DAHB

In the spirit of the training offered by Dr. Erickson, Stephen Lankton is now conducting continuous tailored training and supervision seminars with an emphasis on therapists' personal experience and development. The creativity of the experience is always high, as it is continually reshaped by the participants. Therapists meet at Stephen's office in Phoenix each day at 9 a.m. Ending times are contingent on the number of individuals present each day. Therapists discuss whatever issue, topic, need, personal concern, or client supervision they wish. Attendees stay varying lengths of time from one day up to two weeks depending upon their availability. Reservations are necessary. Telephone supervision continues to be available for those who meet the eligibility requirements.

"Supervision with Steve Lankton has made a dramatic improvement in the way I do therapy that is evidenced by marked improvement in my clients. I consider his supervision to be my wisest investment in education." - Lyn Yexley, MSW, LCSW, Doctoral Student, University of South Dakota

"My supervision experience with Steve has been valuable on both professional and personal levels." - Jim Afremow, Ph.D., CPC, Sports Psychology Consultant and Certified Professional Counselor, Phoenix, AZ.
